

Seminar Agenda

12th March 2014: 1015 – 1745

Mary Ward House, 5–7 Tavistock Place, London, WC1H 9SN

1015 – 1030	Welcome coffee
1030 – 1035	Introductions – Lucas Porsch
1035 – 1050	Introduction to NETGREEN and this seminar – Lucas Porsch, Charles Seaford Description of the project, its aims and methodology and the aim of the seminar
1050 – 1120	The alternative views shaping visions of a Green Economy – Karen Jeffrey Presentation of the alternative views that shape visions of how best to reach a Green Economy, highlighting where there is agreement and where there are contending views, and exploring why contending views exist.
1120 – 1230	Discussion: Testing the views – chaired by Charles Seaford Chaired discussion of the views presented in order to identify any additional points of importance, and to add precision to the descriptions of contending views and the reasons that they exist.
1230 – 1330	Lunch
1330 – 1345	Summary of discussion from the morning session – Charles Seaford
1345 – 1415	Pathways towards a Green Economy – Karen Jeffrey Presentation of the compatibility of the views discussed in the morning session in order to build up a logical picture of the pathways towards a Green Economy, and broad identification of the types of indicators required to measure progress for each of those pathways.
1415 – 1545	Discussion: Testing the pathways and indicators – chaired by Charles Seaford Chaired discussion of findings presented in order to test the pathways described and develop an understanding of the types of indicators that will be required to measure progress along the pathways.
1545 – 1600	Coffee break
1600 – 1615	Limiting the number of indicators – Rene Verburg Presentation of our work on identifying the types of indicators for inclusion in the database
1615 – 1630	Determining the search criteria – Floor Brouwer Presentation of our work on the meta-data required to support the NETGREEN database search mechanism.
1630 – 1730	Discussion: Shaping the database – chaired by Charles Seaford Invitation to give feedback on our approach to creating the database, and to describe the features that will make NETGREEN most useful for you.
1730 – 1745	Concluding remarks and end of conference
1800 – 1900	Drinks reception: Number Twelve, 12 Upper Woburn Place, WC1H 0HX